1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. This section also outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, ensuring that the information is reliable and up-to-date.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of the proposed changes. It details the steps involved in the rollout process, from initial planning to final execution. This section also addresses potential challenges and provides strategies to overcome them, ensuring a smooth transition for all stakeholders.

3. The third part of the document discusses the long-term impact of the changes. It highlights the expected benefits, such as improved efficiency and cost savings, and provides a timeline for when these benefits are anticipated to be realized. This section also includes a summary of the key findings and recommendations for future action.

4. The final part of the document is a conclusion that summarizes the main points of the report. It reiterates the importance of the changes and expresses confidence in the organization's ability to successfully implement them. This section also includes a list of references and a glossary of terms used throughout the document.

JOHANNESBURG — Jonathan Gluckman, a pathologist who accused South African police of routinely killing suspects in detention, died Wednesday at age 78 after back surgery.

News reports said Dr. Gluckman apparently suffered heart problems related to the operation Tuesday at Milpark Hospital.

Dr. Gluckman told a newspaper last year that he believed police killed most of the approximately 200 detainees he examined after they died in custody.

Police denied the accusation, saying many people died of stress or suicide.

Beatrice M. Paulsen, 81, of Phoenix, a bookkeeper for North American Moving Co., died May 24, 1993. She was born in Caledonia, Mich. Survivors include her daughters, Sharon Arnold and Patricia Ann Gardner; six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren. Services have been held. Contributions: Arthritis Foundation, 777 E. Missouri Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85014. Camelback Sunset Chapel.

Gertie Van Meter Pendleton, 64, of Chandler, a retired lead operator with Motorola, died May 25, 1993. She was born in Akron, Ohio. Survivors include her daughter, Linda Swain; sons, Tom and Bill; two sisters; and eight grandchildren. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Carr-Tenney Mortuary, 2621 S. Rural Road, Tempe. Services: 10:30 p.m. Friday, at the mortuary. Contributions: to a favorite charity.

Ronald Perez, 38, of Tempe, a self-employed businessman, died May 25, 1993. He was born in Flagstaff, and was an Army veteran. Survivors include his wife, Susan; parents, Lupe and Ramon; two sisters; and one brother. Services: 11 a.m. Friday, National Memorial Cemetery, 23029 N. Cave Creek Road, Tempe Mortuary.

Gladys Tyler Peruch, 64, of Phoenix, an animal groomer, died May 25, 1993. She was born in Wheelock, Vt. Survivors include her four daughters; two sons; and five grandchildren. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Chapel of the Chimes Mortuary, 7924 N. 59th Ave., Glendale. Services: 10 a.m. Friday, Resthaven Park Cemetery, 6290 W. Northern Ave., Glendale.

Donald E. Powers, 69, of Mesa, a machinist at Talley Industries, died May 25, 1993. He was born in Eden, W.Va., and was a World War II Army veteran. Survivors include his wife, Jean F.; daughters, Sheila Ware, Sharon, Marilyn Cornwall and Debbie; sons, Dan and Dennis Powers, John, Robert and David Schneider and Russel Lewis; two sisters; one brother; 17 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Vigil services: 7:30 p.m.

Inquests held in a few of the deaths have not found any police misconduct.

Anti-apartheid groups long have accused police of torturing and killing detainees. The African National Congress and other black groups want government security forces brought under multiparty control.

At the request of relatives, Dr. Gluckman performed an autopsy on the body of black nationalist leader Steven Biko after he died in police custody in 1977.

The findings led to an inquiry, which ruled that Biko died of brain damage but that no individual police officer could be held responsible. Biko's family eventually received a settlement for damages from the government.

Mason C. Quinn, 78, of Tempe, a retired tool designer, died May 24, 1993. He was born in Sturgis, Ky. Survivors include his wife, Evelyn; daughters, Julia Hall and Sandra; son, Mason T.; three sisters; five grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. Services: 2 p.m. Thursday, Melcher's Chapel of the Roses, 43 S. Stapley Drive, Mesa.

Amanda Rutherford, 102, of Phoenix, a homemaker, died May 25, 1993. She was born in Chile. Services: 11 a.m. Friday, A.L. Moore and Sons Mortuary, 333 W. Adams St., with visitation an hour before services.

Rose M. Severson, 55, of Peoria, a computer operator, died May 25, 1993. She was born in Indiana. Survivors include her daughter, Rhonda Coplin; mother, Mary Lou Eck; and four brothers. No services are planned. Contributions: a children's charity of choice. Heritage Funeral Chapel.

Edith May Shade, 63, of Kingman, a bookkeeper for Arizona, died May 24, 1993. She was born in Rochester, Minn., and was an Army veteran and a member of Disabled American Veterans. Survivors include her daughters, Kathy Shade, Becky Parker and Jessica Hawkins; sons, Larry, Bill and Jim; one brother; and 10 grandchildren. Services will be private. Arizona Cremation and Burial.

Lillian Emily Smith, 90, of Phoenix, a retired elementary-school teacher, died May 23, 1993. She was born in Superior, Wis. Survivors include her daughter, Nancy Kidd; son, Brent Luther; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. No services are planned. Hansen Mortuary.

William R. Sommers, 62, of Phoenix, a retired pharmacist, died May 24, 1993. He was born in Brownstown, Ind., and was a Navy veteran. Survivors include his sons, Randy, Greg and Kevin; mother, Maudie; one brother; and two grandchildren. There are no services. Messingers Mortuary and Chapel.

Biko's life and controversy made him the subject of the new film Freedom.

LINE MAY TOUCH VALPARAISO

Seeking Favorable Road That May Be Built to Chicago

Final decision to build the line to South Bend has been decided upon by the St. Joe Valley Traction company, according to Bradford Maxon, agent for H. E. Becken, chief promoter of the company. He announced yesterday at Elkhart that it had been decided by the board of directors to operate from LaGrange to South Bend, as allowed by the charter.

Up until now it had been thought that the road would be built only as far as Elkhart. All the surveying to South Bend has been done. Part of the grading from LaGrange to Elkhart has been done and the line between those two points may be in operation within a year. There is also an impression that South Bend will not be the final end of the road, but that it will be pushed on through to Chicago, thus touching Laporte, Valparaiso and Hammond.

No positive information on this point is obtainable, but the understanding among those who profess to know what they are talking about is to this effect. Valparaiso will welcome such a line.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Marriage of Mr. Charles Lee and Miss Ollie Ritter.

A pretty home wedding was that of Mr. Charles Lee and Miss Ollie Ritter which was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ernie Finney, last evening at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. B. Becken, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by forty relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Mr. Lee is manager of the shoe department at Lowenstein's department store, and the bride is a daughter of ex-County Treasurer John Ritter. Both are estimable young people, and they have the well wishes of hosts of friends. They received many handsome and valuable presents. The bridal couple left in the evening for Chicago, where they will spend several days.

SENT TO REFORMATORY

Fay Bickel, Ryan, of Elkhart, Faces Chance to Groin.

A dispatch from Hammond says Judge Tuttle, in the Lake Superior Court, has sentenced Fay Bickel, Ryan, a pretty girl, wife of sixties, to spend the next five years of her life in the Indiana Woman's Reformatory because her husband is unable to make her remain indoors at night and she to accept the attentions of numerous masculine admirers.

When Fay Bickel was thirteen years old and still in short dresses she eloped to Valparaiso with William Ryan, who obtained a license by subterfuge, for which he was afterward placed in jail for perjury. Theodore Ryan, a brother of the husband, obtained a marriage license in the Porter county clerk's office at Valparaiso but the license was taken away before they could get married by Clerk Wilson after an exciting street chase he having discovered the girl was not of age. Ryan and the girl then went to Michigan where they were married.

The girl's father, a hotelkeeper in Hammond, had the brothers arrested for perjury and abduction. They both lay in jail for a time, until the girl softened her father's heart, and he released. The young couple lived together for a year, until the girl was twenty-one years of age.

For incorrigibility and waywardness the court decided that she must remain in prison till she was twenty-one years of age.

Allen G. Hamann Rt. 5, Box 281 Lexington, VA.-24450

October 1, 1991

Dear Carol:

Needless to say, it was a very welcome surprise to make contact this week with another cousin I did not know existed. I hope the feeling was mutual. I am aware that we attempted to cover so much ground over the telephone that you are probably totally confused by now. So perhaps I can put a few of my notes down. I have a feeling that we will be sending several items back and forth.

I will write to my friend in Hochdonn, and ask him to check with the Suderhastedt church for a marriage record of Maria Paulsen. It will be far easier for him to cover that base.

My notes (I did not attempt to pay for official copies) indicate that Johanna Maria Paulsen, born 21 Apr 1845, was baptized 6 May 1845 at Suderhastedt. She was listed as "daughter of Magdalena Hamann, the daughter of Friederick Hamann & Maria Wei?" and it said that Johann Paulsen of Hademarschen was the father. One of the godparents was Maria Hamann (presumably her grandmother). I now know that her grandmother's maiden name was probably "Bei" or even "Bey" -- I've seen it both ways.

Also from the same church's death books, I show that Magdalena Hamann died 20 Sep 1845 at 20 years of age, unmarried, and that she was buried 23 Sep 1845. She was listed as the d/o Friederick Erdmann Hamann & Maria Bei. She had one daughter, Johanna Maria Paulsen.

I also have the death information for Friederick Erdmann Hamann in 1852, but Magdalena is not named, since she died in 1845. The same is true for Maria Bei Hamann who died in 1861.

I will send you photocopies of some things I have. The pages I have entitled "The Hamann Family of Hochdonn, Germany" represent a rather informal look at the family that I have thrown together in the past year. I still have to write something more official. You can see Maria Paulsen at the bottom of the first page. Her uncle Carl (born 1812) is my ancestor. On page 4 (top) is Sophie Bruhn, the daughter of Carl Hamann.

The sheet (pp. 40-41) on the Bruhn appendix is from my 1984 book on the Frederick Hamann family, now very outdated due to my later findings. The enclosed pedigree chart begins with my grandfather John Hamann (1869-1942). Johann Loch (#6) had a son Henry, who was the father of John, Max and Anna. Henry m Anna Boehl. As you may notice, the older Loch generations were apparently from the same location as the Bruhn family.

The enclosed map is from a roadmap I have of Kreis Steinburg (the county where Itzehoe lies). It is in color, so not everything is showing up well. Suderhastedt is at the upper left. About six miles southeast is the village of Hochdonn. It is along the Kiel Canal (also "North-East" or "Nord-Ostsee-Kanal"). That was the home of the Hamanns, where my ancestor Carl built a house in 1848 which still stands. There are still "Hennings" there, but I did not meet any of them. You may also see the village of Eggstedt (very top of map) where Carl and Magdalena's sister Maria (later Hennings) was baptized in 1820. Nutteln, a name you see on page 2 of the Hamann notes (where Hamanns and Lochtlived) is just off the map to the right. It is on the road east of Hochdonn on the way to Itzehoe.

The boundary ("county line") between Kreis Steinburg and Kreis Dithmarschen is roughly shown by my pink marking pen. To the left on the river is the town of Brunsbittel. If you look north about two inches, you can find a small village of Westerbuttel, which I am guessing might be the village you mentioned. All of this on the west side of the line would be in the kreis of Dithmarschen. If you look at the right side of the map (towards bottom), you can see "WILS..", the beginning of the town of Wilster. It lies just about half way between the canal and Itzehoe. The next village southwest of Wilster is the little "Dwerfeld" which is mentioned near the bottom of my pedigree chart (#7-14-15).

I might say a word about the area cemeteries -- they are seldom of great help genealogically, since most of the tombstones are obviously new (even if dates are old). Plots are owned by family descendants, and they can later be sold -- with others buried on top of former people. The cemeteries are very beautiful, with flowers and hedges everywhere. If a family does not keep its lot up properly, it is taken from them and sold to someone else. Time did not allow me to walk every inch of the Suderhastedt cemetery, but I doubted that I would find more than I did in the church.

Another item I have it photographs, but I am uncertain concerning your level of interest in this. If I can find the negatives, it might not be too hard to make duplicates. I have many from the village of Hochdonn, and a couple from Suderhastedt (including the church, I think). I hesitate to go the time and expense of bothering with this, since I don't know your full interests.

Where do we go from here? Eventually, I will have to update my earlier works, but I'm not there yet. Perhaps you have specific questions I could tackle. I will write my friend to see about a marriage record at Suderhastedt for Maria and Henry Hintz.

From your end, I am curious as to whether any of this triggers a memory or two from your mother. I would especially be interested in any specifics she might recall about the Lochtl family, or any other memories about the Bruhn family.

I am also very interested in what that reference to a Miss Lena Heyman might have been. It sounds like she might have been the one who married Max Locht. I have before me the 1910 Chicago, IL. census (#103-1438-0297) of Henry Locht (widower, to USA 1870). In his household were the children John, Marcis, and Anna (35, 33, 29, John born IN. and the other two IL.). Our Hamann family reunion notes indicate that present at the 1931 reunion were Mr. Henry Locht, Mr. Max Locht, Miss Anna Locht, Mr. & Mrs. John Locht and family. At the 1934 reunion was Mr. Max Locht, along with Mr. & Mrs. John Locht and family. Mrs. John Locht won a prize in 1935. They stopped listing all attendees after that time, but you can see why it appears that John was always listed as married and Max was also listed by himself. I also have a note that a Margaret Locht, age 30 hours, was buried 27 Feb 1915 in Chicago's Concordia cemetery, but I am not sure if she is the d/o Marcus or John.

Incidentally, the William Hamann of Crown Point (in Dora Bruhn's obituary) would be my grandfather's brother who lived on the Lake Co. and Porter Co. line southwest of Valparaiso. You evidently have an obituary for Dora that I have not seen, as mine does not mention such survivors.

I guess that is really about as far as I can go right now; it's also getting late. I will be eagerly awaiting any further word which you may offer or any hints of other relationships. I am not able to guess when I might be coming through Fort Wayne next. Although my sister (Mrs. Philip Pattengale, owner of the Schwinn Bicycle Shop) and my mother (in nursing home) live in Sturgis, MI., we rarely get to visit (maybe Thanksgiving or Christmas??).

Good luck on your family pursuits. Let me know if there is more that we can do together.

Sincerely,

AL

Dear Carol:

I enjoyed your packet which arrived in the mail today. I decided to answer immediately, lest it get lost in the shuffle. Though I cannot claim as many legitimate excuses (doctors, etc.) as you, I feel about as scattered in many different directions. I have been on the phone half the afternoon trying to get computer software problems resolved. I think the devil invented computers.

I love your idea that Lena Heyman might be the Cath. Magdalena of German origin. Did you notice in the newspaper clippings about Anna Bruhn's death that "Miss Lena Heyman" attended the funeral, but "Mrs. Lena Heyman and daughter returned to Chicago" (listed just left of your outlined reference to John Slont returning). According to my Germany sources, Cath. Magdalena was born in 1848 and was in America by the 1880s. So she would have been the age of John Locht's and Dora Bruhn's parents. If she's the one, she would have been 52 when Anna died.

You mention that I have talked to "Bruhn relatives". Not really, except for people like you and me. It's funny, I graduated from high school in Kouts (Porter Co.) in 1956, a few months after Dora Bruhn died, but I don't remember a thing about her. I only know that I have heard the name "Cousin Dora Bruhn". I obviously have seen her at reunions, but I can't say I remember a thing about her (of course I wasn't very interested in family back then).

The banker family I recall was Nuppnau, and there are still some in Valpo today -- a Paul, a William D. and a J.C. are listed in the 1988 phone book I have. Paul rings the bell with me, so he may have been a son of "Billy". I see by the Porter Co. history that a Paul Nuppnau and wife Ida (Clausen) came to Valpo in 1883. He lived past 91 (when the book was written in 1912), the father of 11 children (including a Paul who married Charlotte M. Atheros in 1883). This Paul Jr. was father of 5 children born in Valpo: Charlie, William, Paul, Laura and Martha.

The name Pinney is familiar to me, though of course I don't know which one was "friend of Hulda Wyman". I see that a tribute to Mrs. William Pinney (Finette Morrison) was signed by directors of the bank, including Paul Nuppnau. This Pinney couple had a child Myra Finette.

I think I mentioned that William Hamann (Crown Point, IN.) was my grandfather's brother. Miss Lydia Bornholt was the d/o Hans &

Antge (Harbeck) Bornholt who m 1845. I still keep thinking that one of these days we will connect with the Bornholts. They were definitely from the same area of Germany, and followed a similar migratory and church pattern.

I don't know the Essermans, but I see by the history book that he was born in Hanover, Germany (that can be the region or the city) in 1847, came to the U.S. in 1867 and to Porter Co., IN. in 1897. His wife (Johanna Michaels) was a sister to Mrs. John Brown.

Mrs. Lilly Hamann Gast and Mrs. Lulu Martin Rhoda are both Hamann kin -- nieces of my granddad. Mrs. Laura McGarvey was my dad's sister (though she later annulled that brief McGarvey marriage). Among the witnesses, Minnie Cooper and Meta Homfeld were sisters (Homfeld). Their sister married my grandfather Hamann, and the families were farm neighbors. I do not recognize the other names (could Dora have boarded college students?).

I will try to remember to pursue the German photograph item, but not today. As far as who reared Marie, I'm not certain. As far as whether the marriage record might say, it's hard to tell. Some of those records were very complete.

* I just noticed that I have a newspaper photo of John Bruhn's soda fountain. I'll see if it photocopies tomorrow. I don't have a record of any "daughter Edith" as mentioned in that article.

I think that's about all I have at this point. Hopefully, there will be more later. If you ever get downtown to the library, it might be interesting to check the 1900 Illinois census to see if there is a Lena Heyman/Hamann. Does the Ft. Wayne library have city directories for Chicago in that period? For that matter, I don't know that I ever checked for John Locht and his wife in the city directory. I have their 1910 census (Chicago), but did not find them in 1880 or 1900.

Well, enough of this! More later!

Sincerely,

Allen G. Hamann

* In my copy the top picture is on left side, bottom picture on right of one folded page. It obviously from the Valpo paper (Valpo Messenger = V-M), but date is unknown.

Carol Springer

Fort Wayne, IN.-46815

Dear Carol:

Here it is, in case I haven't reached by telephone before you get this letter! Enclosed please find a copy of the letter received today from my friend in Germany. I know you want to get straight to page 2, because that's where he talks about the Hinz family (or Hintz or Hintze). If I figure it right, he's got your own gr-gr-gr-grandparents (b. 1774).

Let me tell you a little bit about Harald and his wife Marianne. First, his address: Harald Neumann, Hauptstrasse 33, 2224 Hochdonn (Germany of course). I originally had written to the "mayor" of Hochdonn, and they did what they do with all English letters -- they sent them to Harald. He and his lovely wife Marianne live in village-owned property. The big building has their spacious home on one end, and the firehouse on the other, which is also a community center. Across the back "parking area" is the school. Harald and Marianne are "the school" (I think they have one part time helper). Harald is also the "local historian", and is ever running back and forth from home to school to get a map, a chart or some other reference. Some of the time, Marianne's mother is with them. Unlike the other two, she speaks no English, but is a ball of fire.

As things evolved, my wife and I went to England in the summer of 1990, where I studied at Oxford for 3 weeks and she visited with her sister. We travelled a week or so in northern England and in Scotland. We then went to Hochdonn, where we lived for an entire week with Harald and Marianne. In the mornings, Harald and I went "record hunting" in local churches, and the rest of the time we just sat and ate and talked.

Harald is a history buff, but not as much of a genealogy fanatic as I am. My experience has been that at times he seems a little slow to answer a simple question (like "Is there a record for the marriage of Henry Hintz and Maria Paulsen?"), but as you can see, when he answers, he really answers.

At first I thought the information on the first page was all so redundant -- things I already had, and had shared with Harald. As I looked more carefully, however, I had the names, but never did have the dates which he was supplying. I think you can readily see that he is giving the birth and baptism dates. The German copy is the baptism of Henry's father John. Your guess is as good as mine on the hard-to-read German godparents listed (1,2,3).

On the map, Suderhastedt is about an inch about Kleinrade (at the very top of the map, west of Hochdonn). You can see the two roads beginning to converge to enter Suderhastedt, and the big road from Hochdonn (to the northwest) is going there also. Eggstedt, which he quotes in the letter, is east of Suderhastedt and north of the village of Grossenrader (see just west of Hochdonn). Just off of the map to the right is the village of Nutteln, my grandfather's birthplace in 1869.

Back to Harald -- I would think he would be delighted to receive a letter of thanks from you, should you be so inclined. Since he can decipher English (better than he claims), that is no problem. If you had a burning question which you think he might answer, it is worth a try. But my initial reaction is that it would be best to attempt contact with the church in the village of concern, as Harald cannot possibly have total enjoyment in running all over the country for "us foreigners". I imagine he found everything he could, though Henry's parents leave a little gap, I think. It is likely they were married in another church of the area.

I still hope to get around to finding the negatives from our trip to Germany, and getting you some pictures. "Best laid plans of mice and men..." they say!

Meanwhile, I hope this helps a little (understatement?), and wish you luck in your look for Lena Heyman/Hamann in Chicago. That is the one missing link in my own research -- except for Friedrich Hamann (b. 1818, s/o Friederich E.) who was in America by 1852. I have no idea at all where he might have ended up; who knows when I may discover yet more cousins?

Meanwhile, keep up the correspondence, and I will try to get my notes in a more workable order before too long.

Sincerley,

AL

Dear "Bruhn" Friends:

Since each of you have graciously responded to my earlier letters -- and quite promptly I might add -- I feel that I owe each of you a letter. The most efficient way to handle this is to mail copies of the same letter to all, and thus we know where we each stand at this particular point in history.

I have identified six distinct Bruhn families, plus a couple of marriages that I have not placed with any of the six. Thus far, no inter-relationship has been discovered between the six. For purposes of identification, I will refer to them as Family A, B, C, D, E and F. I will include those of you who have corresponded with me as the "Contact Person" under your primary family, even though you may have information on more than just your family.

FAMILY A: Johann Bruhn Sr. and wife Elsabe Frodie (selfishly, I list this family first, since it is the one I am most interested in. I will not say too much here about them, but will include an additional page of data).

Roots: Hademarschen, Holstein, Germany

to USA: about 1865

Contact: Al Hamann (his great-grandfather's sister married Claus Bruhn)
Mrs. Lester Finney, 179-S/ 75-E, Valparaiso, IN-46383 (her first husband's father (Wm. Schlundt) had a brother, John, who married Anna Elizabeth Dreesen, the daughter of Anna (Bruhn) Dreesen.)

FAMILY B: Sophia Bruhn, whose daughter Sophie Marie m Ernst Wentorf

Roots: Holstein, Germany (Linsfeld, Kiel, Euton, Braak, Lubeck mentioned)

to USA: ? (arrived Two Rivers, WI. in May 1884, but was that first stop?)

Contact: Mrs. Hilary Vanderbloemen, 7226 W. Wabash Ave., Milwaukee, WI.-53223 (granddaughter of Sophie Marie Wentorf)

Sophie Marie Bruhn (dau of Sophia Bruhn and ?) was born in Liensfeldt (or Linsfeld) Germany 7 Nov 1849, and married in same village to Ernst Heinrich Westorf in 1870. She had 11 children (3 died in childbirth), with Mrs. Vanderbloemen's father being the youngest. Grandma arrived in Two Rivers in 1884 with 5½ children. They were Lutherans, as were members of Family A.

FAMILY C: Charles Bruhn Sr. and wife Wilhelmina Schüeler; four sons -- William, Herman, Charles Jr. and Frank (who d. 1890 at 5 yr.). Three sons each m and had one child, with our contact being only child remaining.

Roots: Mecklenburg, Germany (the old area east of Hamburg; possibly Bezscherwin now) -- no village names given to USA: 1880s

Contact: Leona Bruhn, 119 Clair St., Michigan City, IN-46360 (granddaughter of Charles Bruhn, Sr. who died 1925 at age 71)

Leona Bruhn says she "was born a Bruhn and remained one" (though her name was originally given to me as Mrs. L. Bruhn, she only signed herself Leona Bruhn. I assume she is unmarried, or she would have mentioned a husband's Bruhn family. She adds that "Grandfather had a sister in Germany -- she married a Mr. Puls; they had two sons who were both killed in World War I."

FAMILY D: Karl "Daniel" Bruhn (b. 1879 Sweden; d. 1954 Chesterton, IN.)
 m 1909 (Hammond, IN.) to Selma S.V. Roos (b. 1884 Sweden; d. 1971 ILL.)

 Anders Edvin Bruhn (brother of Karl "Daniel") (b. 1883 Sweden;
 d. 1965 Hammond, IN.; m 1913 (Hammond) to Emily Krook
 2 ch: Helen 1916 and Grace, b. ?

Roots: Sweden

to USA: (haven't heard)

Contact: Mrs. Hugh A. Hopkins, 912-N/ 250-E, Chesterton, IN-46304
 (daughter of Karl Daniel's eldest son Eugene)

Mrs. Hopkins says that Karl Daniel and Anders Edvin were the only Bruhns from their family in the U.S. Interestingly, her mother's brother ("Bud" Shupe) used to live over John Bruhn's store in Valparaiso (John of Family A).

FAMILY E: ? Wilhelm Pearsson married _____ Bruhn

Roots: Sweden

to USA: (haven't heard, but contact's in-laws were both immigrants)

Contact: Mrs. Jane (Kinsey) Bruhn, 219 - 174th St., Hammond, IN. (Mrs. Clarence Bruhn) (Clarence was grandson of Wilhelm above)

In a strange twist for their day, Clarence Bruhn's grandfather's name was Wilhelm Pearsson, but he took his wife's maiden name of Bruhn for his own. Both of Clarence's parents were immigrants.

FAMILY F: William H. Bruns or Bruhns

Roots: Germany

Contact: none; Porter Co., IN. records

Nobody has surfaced with knowledge of this family. According to the death record in Porter Co., William Bruhns was born 10 Mar 1846 in Germany, the son of Ham Bruhns (could they mean Hans?). He died 19 Jan 1930 at 84, his wife was Znia, and he was buried at Maplewood Cemetery. Maplewood Cemetery shows William H. Bruns, with wife Dina C. (1865-1940) and also Minnie, Emma, Willie. There is a 1900 census record for William Bruhns (probably an error in spelling), wife Dina, and children Frank, Otto, Nellie, Minnie. I did not fully research for any more details, except noting that he was a tailor, as was the father of Sophia Marie Bruhn of Family B.

OTHER NOTES:

G. On 13 June, 1898 a John H. Bruhn m Henrietta Reprogle (also called "Mary"). Their son, Claud Bruhns, died 19 Jun 1906 at 7 yrs. old; buried Old City Cemetery in Valparaiso, IN. I do not believe we should confuse this John with the one who married in 1904 to Amanda Alpen from Family A., though it is still possible they were the same (both were John H. Bruhn). Family A's John's obituary only mentions wife Amanda and son J. Vernon Bruhn.

H. On 7 Dec 1931, also in Porter Co., a W. W. Shoemaker married an Esther Henrietta Bruhn (dau. of Fred of Leipzig Germ. and Mary (Motz)). Esther was born 20 Jun 1900 in Dolton, IL, and lived in Chicago in 1931. I have no idea where she might fit, if in fact with any of the other families.

Having said all this, I am not sure that we know any more than the fact that there must have been several broods of Bruhns (or Brun or whatever). Mrs. Hopkins of Family D (Swedish) says their name was originally Brun, but that her great-grandmother put an "h" in it to Germanize it.

Speaking of roots, we do not know of any connection between the Swedish and German groups. From studying my German maps (both current and 1872 versions), I come to the following conclusion. If you can locate Hamburg on your map:

- a..Family A territory can be found by going about 30 miles northwest of Hamburg to Itzehoe, and then about 15 miles north.
- b. Family B was about 50 miles northeast of Hamburg (near Eutin), which was roughly 50 miles due east of Family A
- c. Family C (only roughly given as Mecklenburg) would probably have been about 30-50 miles east of Hamburg and south-east of Family B territory by maybe 30-50 miles.
- d. Sweden's southern tip would have been about 200 miles northeast of Hamburg (as the crow flies), with Denmark being the route-connector.

Although each of us claims some association with a common name (Bruhn), I am not sure that we represent a very close-knit fraternity. I imagine that I speak for some of us in saying that we will keep our eyes open in case we come across anything that looks significant or which might prove helpful to any of us. And I probably speak for some in saying that the Bruhn interest is just not that great at the moment, due to the remote connections.

Perhaps, however, at this one point in history, we each have at least this letter in common (a copy of which will be sent to the Valparaiso Public Library for their "Bruhn" file). I welcome your reaction (since I love to receive mail and also to solve puzzles), but I am not going to lose a great deal of sleep if I do not hear from you, due to the lack of proven connections between us. I would be interested in knowing if anyone has documentation concerning the John H. Bruhn and Henrietta Reprogle family (#G on p. 2). Otherwise, I hope this letter has helped a little to pull things together, and apologize for any errors or confusions which may have crept in. Thank you for making it this far through my ramblings, and good luck in your various searches.

Sincerely,

Al Hamann

OVERTIME IN VALPO DURING SUNDAY

MESSENGER RECEIVES LETTERS FROM FRANCE.

Private Robert F. Wiencken, of Valparaiso, who is with the American forces in France, sends the Messenger a post card showing pictures of the Bendorf and Rhelms hospitals. He says: "Just to say Hello; I receive the Messenger daily, for which I am truly thankful, as it gives me all the news of my old home town."

John C. Jones, formerly Goss pressman at the Messenger, also writes a letter from France, saying he expects to get back to the states about the latter part of February.

SEVERAL PROMINENT RESIDENTS ANSWER CALL TO ETERNAL REST

MR. HIRSCHLAND LEAVES ON A BUYING TOUR.

B. J. Hirschland, cloak and suit buyer for the Lowenstine store, left last night for New York and other eastern cities to purchase the new spring line of coats and suits, dresses, millinery and waists. Mr. Hirschland expects to be gone about two or three weeks and will take at least a week or ten days to look over the different styles before purchasing. In this way he will be in a position to know what are the most predominating styles. Lowenstine's patrons will look forward to Mr. Hirschland's return from the eastern markets, knowing full well that he can be relied upon to show Valpo's feminine folks the very latest in spring's newest styles.

WESTVILLE GIRL

WEDS AT CAPITAL.

The wedding of Miss Mira Edgerly to Co. County Alfred Skargeck de Korsybski is announced. The marriage took place in the chamber of Associate Justice Chambers of the supreme court of the district, Washington, D. C., Judge Gould performing the ceremony. The bride is a sister of Mrs. B. F. Henton, of Westville, where she formerly lived. The groom is a son of the Polish nobility, has seen active service on the general staff of the Russian army and was severely wounded. He has recently been on duty with the American forces in an advisory capacity.

The Grim Reaper has been working over-time in and around Valparaiso since the last issue of the Messenger Saturday afternoon, and today the demise of a number of prominent residents is reported.

Shinabarger.

Mrs. Carrie Shinabarger died this morning about 7:30 o'clock at her home on West Monroe street. She suffered from influenza and pneumonia for one week. She was Miss Whitmoek of Wanatah and her husband died here about two years ago.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from Bartholomew's undertaking parlors. Interment at Maplewood.

Bruhn.

Miss Anna Bruhn, aged 50 years, died late Saturday afternoon at the Christian Hospital, following two operations, the first being on the 14th of the month and the last on Friday. Deceased was born and raised on College Hill, and is survived by her mother, Mrs. John Bruhn, Sr., one brother, John H., and two sisters, Minnie and Edith, at home.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, 553 Greenwich street. Rev. T. F. Williams officiating. Interment will follow in Graceland.

Davidson.

Miss Viola Davidson passed away at her home, corner of Franklin avenue and Jefferson street, Saturday evening. She had been ill a long

SMALL-POX CONFERENCE.

Proclamation by Governor Mount is favored.

The Indiana board of health met with Governor Mount and Attorney-General Taylor in Indianapolis at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and discussed the small-pox situation in the state. Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the health board, reported the extent of the disease. Although it had appeared only in mild form he thought immediate steps should be taken to prevent its spread. Vaccine virus should be purchased and a proclamation should be issued to the people telling them of the danger. He was in favor of drawing in the contingent fund of the state, if necessary, to stop the course of the disease.

Township Trustees' Duties.

So much confusion has arisen among township trustees over methods of distributing poor relief under the acts of 1899, that Amos Butler, secretary of the state board of charities, Wednesday sent out to the township trustees of the state a circular calling attention to their duties.

The letter says that all township trustees will administer relief to needy poor, under house act No. 204, page 121, of the acts of 1899. The money will be advanced out of the county treasury and will be repaid thereto by a township levy the next year. After such relief has been given three months, or to the amount of $15, a statement must be submitted to the county commissioners, and authority asked to give further relief. The auditor, the letter says, is required to report all poor relief withdrawn to the state board of charities. The letter urges the trustees to make their reports promptly.

Thieves at Work.

Late Saturday night thieves attempted an entrance into the home of Hon. E. D. Crumpacker. The thieves used a chisel in trying to pry open the windows which had been securely nailed down by the Crumpackers before their departure to Washington. The noise of the intruders soon attracted the attention of Night Policeman Will Mohrnsen and several of the

POLITICAL NOTES

The state republican central committee has made the following selections:

Chairman—Chas. S. Hernly.
Vice Chairman—Joseph Kealing.
Secretary—Warren Bigler.
Treasurer—H. W. Bennett.

Landis and Watson will both be gubernatorial candidates, says a report.

The Republican state convention will be held May 16 and 17 at Indianapolis.

Grant Mitchener, of Valparaiso, was early on hand, and he may get a good appointment at the request of the state committee, says the Indianapolis News.

Chairman Hernly will not appoint his executive and advisory committees for a week or ten days. It is understood that there will be some changes as the committees now stand.

The factional fight between the Hanly and Haggard forces in district Ten is said to be utterly irreconcilable that Haggard will never have the ghost of a show of bringing down a united delegation.

The outlook in the Tenth is gratifying to the chairman, Thomas J. McCoy. Almost every county reports a close organization, and the old-time majorities are expected. There will be no opposition to the renomination of Judge Crumpacker, of Valparaiso, for congress.

The committeemen have agreed that the issues in the coming campaign would be expansion, trusts and the money question, as represented in the bill which congress will pass, and these gentlemen report that the party throughout the state is a unit upon these questions, republicans everywhere giving a hearty support to the president's policy.

The republican state committeemen, new and old, are full of confidence. The reason for this, they say, is that the state organization presents a stronger front than it has for a long time and is in for a long time and is in a position now to make a hard and successful fight against anything that can arise. They do not seem to fear the result and each thinks that his district is in excellent shape.

MORTUARY RECORD.

Miss Hattie Fishburn died Friday morning at 10. at the home of her parents, corner of Water and Franklin streets.

Deceased had been ailing for the past four months with a complication of diseases which gradually became aggravated until the heart was affected and the demise came.

Miss Fishburn was 40 years of age, and had always resided in this county. She was born near Boone Grove, and had never married. She was a prominent and faithful member of the Christian church and a large circle of acquaintances and friends mourn the death of a kind and solicitous friend.

The funeral has been set for 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, but it is not yet determined whether it will be held from the late home or the church of her adoption.

Miss Anna Bruhn, aged 20 years, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Bruhn, of Union and Locust streets, died January 17, about 8 o'clock. Although a victim of consumption, she had been ill but a few weeks and the sad ending of a promising life was hardly expected.

Miss Bruhn was an estimable young lady and a decided favorite with a host of friends and acquaintances. She graduated from the High School with the class of '99. Industrious, studious and prompt in the discharge of her duties, she was an exemplary student and created a lasting impression which will endear her memory to many sorrowing friends.

The funeral of the late Miss Anna Bruhn occurred from the home Friday afternoon, and the remains were followed to their last resting place in the Union street cemetery by a large number of bereaved friends.

Dakota Letter.

Park River, N. Dak.,
January 22, 1905.
Mr. Vidette,
Valparaiso, Ind.

Dear Sir:
Find enclosed my check to replenish my subscription to the Vidette. I left Valparaiso 17 years ago the 17th of March and have always been the Vidette for news of some of my old neighbors. I remember as clearly as yesterday. Kindly send me to all of them and their happiness and prosperity the same in the future as in the past.

Enclosed you a statement of our banks in my little town. You can see what a prosperous little town I am in, financially.

Respectfully yours,

A. M. Abel.

Two bank statements of the above shows amounting to $602.

GREEN HILLS.

A dispatch says: It developed Wednesday that Congressman Crumpacker, who has introduced a resolution in the lower house directing the superintendent of census to collect statistics of marriage and divorces, was largely influenced in his action by the letters of Michigan clergymen directing attention to the Green at St. Joe, Benton Harbor and other Michigan lake towns and the evils arising from indiscriminate marriages.

Congressman Crumpacker has assurances that strong influences will be brought to bear to secure support for the measure.

The plan of the Indiana congressman is to submit statistics of marriages and divorces in the Michigan towns in support of the bill and the appropriation which it carries of $25,000 for the compiling of information. Congressman Crumpacker will draft another measure abating the divorce bill if the appropriation is made.

AN AGED MAN

BURNS TO DEATH.

Wednesday evening's Chicago News contained the following account of the sad death of Edgar Williams, quite well-known here, having visited with Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Billings on several occasions: "Edgar Williams, 77 years old, sought in vain to escape from his room at 1435 State street early today, but was blinded by the flames that enveloped him and burned to death before he could find the door.

Williams fell from a chair on which he was sleeping against a red-hot stove. His clothing ignited and he made unsuccessful efforts to extinguish the blaze. Then he staggered about the room until he fell unconscious. His charred body was found an hour later.

of the Federal building at Hammond. New bids will be called for as the old ones were above the appropriation for the building. The bids will be opened on March 13.

W. H. Knapp went to Valparaiso this morning to visit his mother, who is in poor health. Mr. Knapp's family will move to Valparaiso in a few days to care for the old lady, and later Mr. Knapp may go there for the summer.—Michigan City Dispatch.

Chester Malone, Allen White, Kate Swartout and Grace Leonard while out driving last night had an accident. While turning the corner of Greenwich and Main streets their horse became frightened and ran away, but the occupants escaped injury.

Harvey Lantz, a former High School pupil, has been admitted to practice in the United States supreme court. He acted as attorney for the Chesertown syndicate in their purchase of Tennessee lands, and it is said that this company has about the only clear land title on record in that state.

SUDDEN DEATH ON COLLEGE HILL.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

Claus Bruhn, who owns a confectionary store at 501 Union street, died suddenly of heart failure while sitting in a chair at 11:30 o'clock Thursday at his home adjoining the store building.

Upon arising this morning he felt as well as common, and while seeming to be in good health expired before medical aid could reach him. Besides a wife, he leaves a daughter, Miss Doris Bruhn, who is employed at the Lowenstein store. John Bruhn of 533 Greenwich street, is a brother.

The community loses one of its fairest and most accomplished ladies in Miss Schaeffer's marriage, and the Doctor whose sterling qualities as a physician and man are well known here, deserves our heartiest congratulations. Dr. Hockett and his bride left Saturday for his home in Kents, where he has established a fine practice.

Edelman-Wanders Wedding.

Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian parsonage, Rev. C. Boyd Becker performed the wedding ceremony of Mr. Jesse J. Edelman and Miss Mayme L. Wanders. The groom is head baker at McNiece Bros. & LeClaire's bakery, while the bride is one of this city's accomplished young ladies and a daughter of Mr. Wanders of 257 Indiana avenue. The Vidette wishes the couple success and happiness through their journey of wedded life.

WOMAN'S CLUB Plans and Programs

Junior Woman's club met Wednesday evening at the clubrooms, with Prof. Carl Krekeler as guest speaker. Prof. Krekeler, who holds the title of Chief Naturalist of the State of Indiana, has spent the past several summers in the employ of the Indiana Department of Conservation. He pointed out there are now 18 state parks in Indiana, offering a wide variety of recreational facilities. The beauty of the parks was illustrated in a series of slides showing Indiana lakes for swimming and boating, trails for hiking, bridle paths, shelter areas for picnicking, etc.

There were excellent close-ups of plants and wild life. Several of the parks offer attractive hotel accommodations. Prof. Krekeler emphasized that taking advantage of the state parks is an ideal family pursuit. He concluded by saying that anyone wishing further information on any specific park, or the park system as a whole, might write the Department of Conservation, 311 W. Washington, Indianapolis, for full particulars.

Program for the evening continued with the appearance of a quartet composed of Dick Eckert, Roger Kyes, Ron Criswell and Mike Keller. They were accompanied on the piano by Linda Davidson.

Following the program, club president, Mrs. James Dean, conducted the business meeting. Members were reminded of the March 8 card party and style show. Proposed amendments to the constitution were read. A nominating committee, consisting of Mmes. Bert with white and yellow glads and mums, with gilt palm leaves mixed in with the flowers. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Miss Joan Thompson of 20 N. Washington street, Valparaiso, attended the bride as her maid of honor. William Bacia of Valparaiso was best man to the groom.

A wedding supper was served at 5:30 with a reception following at 7 o'clock at the home of another brother of the bride, George Sipich, 2701 Union street, East Gary.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin and lace, the fitted lace bodice was embroidered with sequins, and she wore matching lace gloves. The floor length skirt was tiered net over white satin. Her fingertip length wedding veil was caught to a headpiece made of lace with sequin trimming. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with satin streamers.

The maid of honor wore a floor length gown of lavender net over taffeta with a strapless fitted bodice, and matching jacket covering her shoulders. She wore a headpiece of flowers to match the pink carnations with satin streamers that she carried.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Coffman, chose to wear a dress of beige lace with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding. With this she had a corsage of white carnations.

The couple took a brief wedding trip to Logansport and since their return have been residing at 351 Locust street, where they have an apartment.

The bridegroom is employed as a salesman for the House of Harmony, and his bride is an employee of the Indiana Steel Products company.

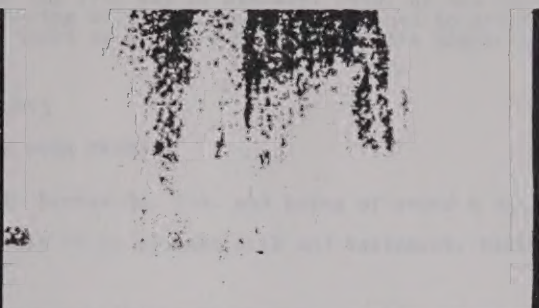

Guests attending the wedding, other than those from the immediate vicinity, were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Woodruff and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodruff of Logansport; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sipich of Pine Grove, Pa.; George Karas of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Hittle of North Judson, Ind.

Sorority Members Plan February Tea For First Lady

Thirteen members of Upsilon chapter, 457, Nu Phi Mu sorority were entertained by Miss Johanna Shinabarger at the home of her parents on RFD 3 Thursday night.

Discussion of the Woman of Distinction tea to be held in February, following the selection of a Porter county woman in the annual poll promoted by the Beta Sigma Phi, occupied part of the period devoted to business. Upsilon chapter, a sister chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, will assist in giving the tea. They will also join Beta Sigma Phi in a white elephant sale on Jan. 16.

Black walnut cake, ice cream and coffee were served during a short social hour. The next meeting will be held on Jan. 26 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hoard, 418 Madison.

MISS MARY SIPICH of Valparaiso became the bride of Kenneth L. Woodruff of Logansport in a pretty home wedding the last day of the old year at the home of Donald Sipich in East Gary. The ceremony was witnessed by members of both families. A wedding supper and reception were held later in the evening.

DEATHS

ARTHUR ANDERSON RITES

Funeral services for Arthur E. Anderson, of Irons, Mich., who died Sunday, Jan. 8, in a hospital in Reed City, Mich., were held at 2 p. m., Friday at Bartholomew Funeral home. The Rev. Oliver C. Starn of the First Presbyterian church conducted the rites. Miss Mae Brown was organist.

Pallbearers, members of the local police force and fraternal order of police were Edward Miller, George Herren, William Black, John Kane, William Jopes and Police Chief Dale Gott. Burial was in Graceland cemetery.

The Fraternal Order of Police had charge of graveside services. Taking part in these were FOP President William Jopes, John Kane, chaplain, Randy Mann, recording secretary, and the visiting and local police officers who each placed a white carnation on the grave before the Rev. Starn pronounced the benediction.

The police departments of Gary, New Chicago and Hobart were represented at the services.

MISS DORA BRUHN

Services for Miss Dora Bruhn, 79, of 258 Greenwich, will be held at 1:30 p. m. Monday in LePell Funeral home.

The Rev. D. A. Flesner will officiate and burial will be in Graceland cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 p. m. Sunday until services.

She died at 8 a. m. Friday in Porter Memorial hospital after a short illness.

A life-long resident of Valparaiso, she was born July 19, 1877, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Bruhn. She formerly operated a grocery store at Locust and Brown.

No close relatives survive. Cousins surviving are Mr. and Mrs. John Schlundt of Valparaiso, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hamann of Crown Point.

Henry F. Schricker of Indiana to the 73 graduates of the 65th annual commencement of Valparaiso university at the University auditorium yesterday afternoon. The auditorium was completely filled.

Schricker began his address by paying tribute to Valparaiso university and congratulating both the graduates and their parents "who have looked forward and made every sacrifice for this day."

"One of the great problems is the lack of appreciation of youth for the sacrifices of those who have gone before," he said. "There-although he was 'not here to preach a sermon," he chose the verse. "Look unto the rock from whence ye were hewn and to the pit from whence ye were digged" on which to elaborate.

"It would profit us to look to the rock from whence we were hewn and to the pit from whence we were digged," stated the speaker.

Turning to temporal affairs, he recounted the philosophy of a hitchhiker, which he said he wished the young people would turn over in their minds: "Wouldn't this be a hell of a world to live in if we knew there wasn't any hereafter?"

"We're living in a turbulent age, we all recognize that. . . Men are at each others' throats. They've forgotten their God. It appears in daily life; it appears in public life. We want you in public life today more than ever before.

"Older folks like to look on younger people as the masterpiece of God, made in his image. They are something more than the product of the home, or the product of a university or school," was Schricker's opinion.

"You are better fortified than

CITY PIONEER DIES AGED 93

Mrs. John Bruhn Succumbs
Saturday Night; Services
Wednesday.

Mrs. John Bruhn, age 93 years, a pioneer resident of Valparaiso, died Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock at her home, 331 South Greenwich street. She had been in failing health for several years.

The decedent was born in Beldorf, Germany, in 1846, her maiden name being Elsie Thüne. She came to Valparaiso when sixteen years of age. Three years later she was married to John Bruhn, local decorator, who died in 1918.

Surviving are two daughters, Minna and Edythe, at home, and son, John, of 553 Locust street, and one grandson, John Vernon. One son died in infancy, and a daughter in 1919.

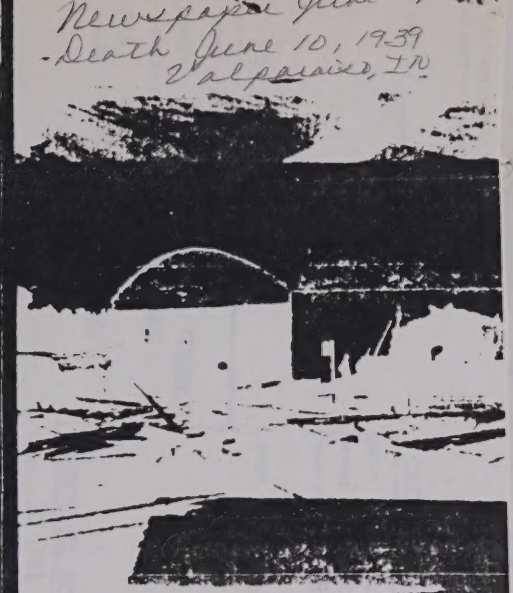

Memorial services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the John Bruhn home, 333 Locust street, conducted by Rev. Theodore Bartell, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church at Waukegan. Burial will be in Grace-land cemetery. Friends may call at the Bruhn home until the hour of the rites.

The top picture was taken from the back end of the Urschel hangar and shows how the planes housed there were twisted and torn by the gate like model ships dumped into a child's playbox. The lower photo is a general view of the wreckage, showing how the east end of the Urschel building was blown out. What appears to be a hole in the side of the hangar is all that remained of a home occupied by Leslie Winder, his wife, and small daughter, Dixie Lee. The house tipped completely over. In the foreground is the wreckage of the Valpo Aero Club's hangar which was completely demolished. The bottom photo shows one of the two planes which were in the club hangar. Its motor was torn completely off and the plane tossed on its back by the wind.

BULLETIN
PHILADELPHIA, Pa. June 12—(UP)—Hotter than the summer wind on the Texas plains where he was born, Byron Nelson, 27-year-old professional, won the National Open golf championship today by defeating Craig Wood in a play-off round by three strokes. Nelson firing an eagle two on fourth hole, shot a 70. Wood had 73.

HOUSE GROUP MOVES TO END PROFITS TAX

WASHINGTON, June 12—The house ways and means sub-committee today tentatively agreed to discontinue the graduated profits tax and to substitute flat 18 percent levy on corporate earnings more than 25,000 a year. The committee also tentatively approved virtually all the changes recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Henry M. Thau, Jr. to stimulate business recovery.

The treasury estimated that changes would probably mean a loss of revenue to the government of $15,700,000 at the business level existing in 1939 a sum regarded as consequential compared with the yield of approximately $1.5 billion produced by other taxes in the budget.

PENNIES AND BABY BALANCE
NORWALK, Conn. (UP)—Edward Thompson, a newborn baby, worth his weight in gold, Thompson said the $45 baby, with 4,500 pennies, was named after him. His son weighed 10 pounds at birth.

Now You Can Visit Europe On Short Summer Vacation

NEW YORK, June 12—(UP)—Pan-American Airways announced today the start of regular trans-Atlantic air passenger service between the United States and Europe on June 28.

Juan T. Trippe, president, said that the service, between the United States, Portugal and France, by way of Azores, will follow the route on which trans-Atlantic air mail service was inaugurated May 20.

The planes are scheduled to reach Lisbon, the first European port of call, in 22 hours and stop overnight before proceeding to Marseilles, an eight-hour flight. Passenger rates, as filed with the civil aeronautics authority, will be $375 for oneway or $675 round trip.

Total mileage between New York and Lisbon is 3,447 miles. Trippe said that the company had petitioned the civil aeronautics authority for permission to operate four round trips weekly between the United States and Europe.

Federal regulations required that the company make five round trip crossings before starting commercial passenger service.
